THIS PHOTO: Wanting a more colorful, lively statement than a bath mat could give, the designers cut an 8×10-foot rug into two runners—one for the bath and one for the vestibule. OPPOSITE: Peonies reference the colors throughout the bath. “I love purples, fuchsias, and pinks,” says homeowner Taylor Hawkins, who owns a skin care salon.

and a hint of sparkle
make this updated bath
a favorite escape for a

Five-Star Getaway
